Investigation Summary: On 27 Jun 2007, CNO reported receipt of a complaint that (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) is harassing a woman who had broken off an adulterous relationship with him. (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) is married, the woman is not.) The source of the complaint is the woman's supervisor, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c), the OSD (b)(6), (b)(7)(c), who called on CNO personally.

Allegedly, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) has been sending a torrent of e-mails, voicemails, and text messages to the woman, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c), which has been so upsetting to her that it has affected her performance. (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) first learned of the relationship when she was about to fire the woman, at which point the woman recounted her experiences with (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) during and after their relationship. (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) had worked in the same office until Feb 2007, and he is currently in the PCO training pipeline en route command of a nuclear submarine. There are concerns for his mental wellbeing, based on the woman's statements to the effect that he has mentioned committing suicide and based on her descriptions of his behavior (which includes a lot of bizarre and disturbing communications and incidents). Allegedly, the woman has retained e-mails, voice mails, and text messages which she will turn over.

When contacted by N5, the woman expressed a concern for her safety. She is afraid (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) may have a violent physical reaction upon learning that she has reported their relationship and his behavior.

On 29 June 2007, (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) discussed the basic facts of the case with (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) NCIS Threat Management Unit, who advised that NCIS would take the case from here and that NAVIG should have no further contact with either party. (b)(6), (b)(7)(c) N5/6-29-2007
